Updates in Hospice and Palliative Medicine and

Intensive Physician Board Review Course

Goal

Caring for patients with advanced-stage cancer poses challenges for healthcare teams, necessitating attention to medical, psychosocial, ethical, and spiritual needs. The Board Review Course is designed to equip physicians with the knowledge and competence in Palliative Medicine, preparing them for the ABIM Hospice and Palliative (HPM) exam.

Physicians, fellows and advanced nurse practitioners will gain the knowledge and competence pertaining to symptom and pain management, issues facing patients at end-of-life, and effective communication techniques to implement into clinical practice.

Educational Objectives

After attending the conference, participants should be able to:

- Analyze the spiritual, legal, and medical challenges confronting patients at the end of life.
- Deliver optimal end-of-life care encompassing state-of-the-art pain management, symptom control, and psychosocial support.
- Illustrate effective communication techniques with patients in advanced stages of cancer or debilitating disease, offering high-quality end-of-life care.

Target Audience

This activity is targeted to physicians and fellows as a board review course for the Hospice and Palliative Medicine Board Certification, though some Advanced Practice Nurses may find the information beneficial.

Educational Methods

Internet Live Course • Lectures/Didactic Audience Polling • Question/Answer Sessions

Evaluation

An online course evaluation tool will provide participants with the opportunity to comment on the value of the program content to their practice decisions, performance improvement activities, or possible impact on patient health status. Participants will also have the opportunity to comment on any perceived commercial bias in the presentations as well as to identify future educational topics.

Accreditation

JOINTLY ACCREDITED PROVIDER™
INTERPROFESSIONAL CONTINUING EDUCATION

In support of improving patient care, The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the healthcare team.

Credit Designation

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 27.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Ethics

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 11.25 credit(s) of education in medical ethics and/or professional responsibility.

Pain Management

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 7.50 credit(s) of education in pain management and the prescription of opioids.

American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC Part 2)

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component, enables the participant to earn up to 27.25 MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.

In order to receive MOC points, you must pass the post-test with a score of 70% or higher.

27th Supportive & Palliative Care

Clinical and Research Symposium

Goal

This activity will address advanced supportive/palliative care topics. Professionals can expect an improvement of knowledge which includes the latest state of the art advances in the field of palliative/ supportive care to support best and effective practices of supportive/palliative care medicine.

As a result of the participation in the Symposium, the Symposium organizing committee intends the participants to: Identify the moral and ethical dilemmas facing clinicians who provide end-of-life care; Practice state-of-the art pain and symptom management for patients with advanced disease; Demonstrate effective communication with patients in advanced stages of cancer or debilitating disease and provide quality end-of-life care; and exhibit heightened awareness of medical, legal and spiritual issues facing patients and families involved in the care of advanced disease.

Educational Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, learners will be able to:

- Develop effective communication skills with patients in advanced stages of cancer or debilitating disease to deliver high-quality end-of-life care.
- Recognize moral and ethical dilemmas encountered in palliative care, integrating supportive care strategies to enhance patient well-being.
- Incorporate cutting-edge pain and symptom management for individuals with advanced diseases.
- Implement principles of palliative care in the context of life-threatening diseases.
- Add two optimal approaches that encompass the most recent advancements in palliative and supportive care.

Target Audience

This program should be of interest to palliative care or hospice physicians, oncologists, internal medicine physicians, family practice physicians, psychiatrists, and/or anesthesiologists. Other professionals include hospice, nursing, psychology, chaplaincy, ethics, and/or sociology.

Educational Methods

Internet Live Course • Lectures/Didactic Workshop Sessions • Virtual Poster Session

Evaluation

A course evaluation tool will provide participants with the opportunity to comment on the value of the program content to their practice decisions, performance improvement activities, or possible impact on patient health status. Participants will also have the opportunity to comment on any perceived commercial bias in the presentations as well as to identify future educational topics.
