Making Cancer History®

Goal

The goal of this conference is for attendees across various professions and backgrounds to learn from each other regarding the importance of ethics education in a variety of fields including science, humanities, and public communication.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, learners will be able to:

- Describe how moral courage is defined and how you can speak truth in difficult situations
- Explain how ethics education can encompass varied disciplines, strategies, and methods
- Identify best practices in ethics education models

Call For Abstracts

Deadline for receipt of abstracts is 11:59 PM CST on April 9, 2021.

The 2021 IAEE Conference Advisory & Planning Committee invites ethics educators and students from diverse fields* to highlight their research or scholarly work through oral presentation or poster display at this virtual gathering of colleagues from around the world.

Opportunities are available for oral presentations and posters.

The abstract and poster submissions will be blindly peer-reviewed by the Section of Integrated Ethics at MD Anderson Cancer Center and the IAEE 2021 Scientific Committee. They will be judged based on their quality. All accepted submissions will be published to the conference website for attendees to view

Diverse Fields Include:*

1. Healthcare - Medical, Nursing, Dental, Public Health, and Pharmacy
2. Business/Finance, Law, and Engineering (Technology, Environmental, Industrial, Energy)
3. Journalism, Philosophy, Religion/ Culture, and Arts & Humanities.

For more details and submission instructions, please click here.

NOTE: You must still register for the conference even if you submit an abstract.

Poster Gallery

Accepted posters will be published on the conference website for viewing by conference attendees.

Oral Presentations

15-minute, real-time, presentations will be given via Zoom. Proposals for prerecorded video submissions will be considered. Each breakout session, organized by theme, will have three presenters. Time will be allotted at the end of each session for questions. Themes might include but are not limited to: Genetics/Genomics, Artificial Intelligence, Solidarity and Collaboration, Moral Courage, Virtual Education, and more.

Abstract Submission Instructions:

All abstracts should be submitted electronically to 2021ethics@mdanderson.org

Abstract Formatting Instructions: Limit abstract body to 250 words, type in 12-point Times New Roman font, single spaced with one-inch margins, and left justified.
